About Chalet Bonnevie...

The owners of Chalet Bonnevie put a lot of thought into choosing where to buy their dream chalet in the heart of the French Alps. But when they saw Chalet Bonnevie, they immediately fell in love with this pretty traditional home in Villards-sur-Thônes.

A major renovation has brought the chalet up to date with four-star comfort. This typical Alpine property is now very welcoming and cosy. A sauna has been installed next to the skiroom, the wood stove has been replaced by a superb Savoyard fireplace and the kitchen has been completely redone. The icing on the cake: a 9m x 3.5m swimming pool surrounded by a wooden terrace has been created and will be available from June to September each year.

You will love the breathtaking views of the valley and the surrounding mountains from the terrace at Chalet Bonnevie, as well as its quiet location just 3km from Villards-sur-Thônes. The village is ideally located between La Clusaz and Le Grand Bornand, allowing you to make the most of all that the region has to offer, whatever the season.

Cyclists and skiers will appreciate the secure room where you can store sports equipment without cluttering the chalet.
